

The Honorable James L. Robart

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON
AT SEATTLE

SEA SHEPHERD LEGAL,

Plaintiff,

v.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,

Defendant.

No. C18-1387-JLR

NOTICE OF APPROPRIATIONS RECEIVED AND ~~PROPOSED~~
ORDER RESETTING DEADLINES

NOTICE is hereby given that the lapse of appropriations affecting the Department of Justice has ended and Department of Justice attorneys may now resume work on the above-captioned case.

1. On the evening of January 25, 2019, the President signed into law H.J. Res. 28, the "Further Additional Continuing Appropriations Act, 2019," which provides appropriations to the Department of Justice through February 15, 2019.

2. Pursuant to this Court's order (Dkt. No. 17), the Government notifies the Court that the lapse of appropriations has ended and requests that the stay currently in place be lifted and an order be entered resetting the deadlines for the parties to FRCP 26(f) deadline, Initial Disclosures, and the Joint Status Report.

3. Defense counsel has conferred with Plaintiff's counsel about the new proposed deadline. The parties propose the following deadlines:

- a. Deadline for FRCP 26(f) Conference: February 7, 2019
- b. Initial Disclosures: February 21, 2019
- c. Joint Status Report: February 28, 2019

DATED this 29th day of January, 2019.

Respectfully submitted,
BRIAN T. MORAN
United States Attorney
